

H1: does a larger receptive field buy accuracy?

FABRICATED PLACEHOLDER: NOT MEASURED

The receptive-field metric (mean k-hop fanin-cone size,  $k = 4$  encoder layers, measured before and after reduction) is specified in the methodology and NOT implemented. Until it exists, H1 (path contraction) is asserted rather than tested and must not be reported as evidenced.